A "Leap" of Grace

The Book of Ruth sets before us two noble characters, Ruth and Boaz. Each took a "leap" of grace, acting beyond the bounds of common sense, where another individual chose instead to act in their own interest. Orpah chose to return to her family and her gods. Ruth chose to stay with Naomi, to become a widow in a foreign land. How could Orpah not ask, "What is Ruth thinking?" Boaz chose to redeem Naomi's property and to marry a Moabite woman. The unnamed "Mr. So-n-So" calculated the financial risks of acting as a redeemer and would not. How could he understand the choice Boaz made?

How do we figure them out? Ruth beautifully declared her commitment to stick with Naomi and to worship Naomi's LORD. Why worship the LORD who had left Naomi without husband or sons in a foreign land? What could it be but that she had seen how the LORD had sustained Naomi through her loss?

Boaz had no obligation to redeem that property or to marry Ruth. The Law made no provision for someone like Ruth. He acted not according to the letter of the Law, but in the spirit of the Law. He reflected the grace of the LORD, who loves us in spite of what we have deserved.

How do people figure us out when they see us making the choice to act against our best interests, selfless, not selfish choices?

An athlete wrote to his former coach in distance running. The letter chronicled all the things the young man had never been able to understand about his coach: the level of investment of time and of himself in such a mediocre runner, the grace and patience toward such an immature young man, and so on. The letter ended, "...and coach, today I met Jesus Christ, and I figured you out."

Jesus declared that the Old Testament Scriptures testified about him. The Book of Ruth shows us Boaz, the kinsman redeemer and points us to the Redeemer who would come from his family line. Ruth, the woman of noble character, sets before us the character of the Church, the Bride of Christ.

In Christ, Pastor John Paustian

Ministry Update

School Update from Principal Dan Schultz

Thanks for the faithful service of our called workers - We recognize the ministry of Ms. Joan Kulow and Mrs. Cathy Wilk who retired after many years of dedicated service to families of Good Shepherd and Shepherd of the Hills. We also recognize Mrs. Jeni Schleeff who served as a support teacher for reading and math and Mrs. Melissa Linton who served as our upper grade teacher. Jeni will be moving out of the area with her husband for his vicar call, and Melissa will be having a baby. We thank the Lord for providing our school with these dedicated workers.

Welcome new teachers - Our new teachers, Mr. Josh Gibson (Grade 8) and Mrs. Nicole Gibson (support teacher) have found a house in the area. They have three children, Jude, Harris and Calvin. Our new 3rd grade teacher, Mrs. Marlee Hill and her husband Tim and daughter Zoie have found a house and have also moved into the area. As part of our joint school partnership, they are members of Shepherd of the Hills. Please keep these families in your prayers as they make this change in their lives.

Accreditation - Our application for accreditation in the 2019-2020 school year was approved as a nationally recognized exemplary school by WELSSA based on successfully implementing and accomplishing ongoing improvement objectives.

Covid and School – This last year sure was a challenge, but we received many positive comments concerning our great teaching staff and the steps they took to continue education. We also thank our parents as much as accomplished because of their extra efforts for their children. As we look forward to the coming 2020-2021 school year, we are planning to have our school open and operating in the fall. We are optimistic that we will be able to welcome students back to our school classrooms for face to face instruction. We are excited to reopen our campus to facility use and activities, while simultaneously providing a plan which aims to uphold health and safety practices.

Technology - We are excited to be able to purchase 40 additional Chromebooks for the coming school year which will provide 1 to 1 Chromebook usage in grades 7-8. In addition, the new chromebooks and a couple extra charging stations will allow us to expand Chromebook usage in grades K-4.

Ice Cream Social – Good Shepherd Lutheran School is hosting an ice cream social for new and returning school families Sunday August 23rd from 1:00-3:00 pm. Come meet the teachers and get to know new and returning families and classmates.

School Opening Chapel for the start of the new school year at Good Shepherd is Monday August 24th at 8:30 am. Everyone is invited to attend and ask for God's blessings upon the new school year. The new school session begins that same day at 8:00 am.

Ministry Structure and Bylaw Review -

In 2019 Good Shepherd leaders gathered input from leaders of various areas of ministry and a cross section of our members concerning key areas of ministry to enhance. A Task Force, working with consultant Jeff Davis, developed a three year Action Plan of goals to strive for, which was adopted by our Coordinating Council. This Action Plan was shared with our members at our Building People Connections emphasis. Now we are striving to meet those goals. One area focuses on Member Ministry Enhancement.

- Initiate a congregation-wide member ministry effort helping God's people discover their strengths and linking them to service.
- Develop a system to train and prepare church leaders and volunteers for service.
- Revise our church structure to increase involvement and ownership from all the members of our church family, male and female, young and old.

1) We want to remove anything from our Bylaws which HINDERS member involvement

2) We want to adopt Bylaws which ENCOURAGE member involvement.

Task Force Members - Pastor Dennis Lemke, Jim Sievert, and Pastor Robert Hein met and reviewed the Bylaws of Morning Star Lutheran Church, Jackson. They updated their Bylaws in recent years with the purpose of getting more men and women involved in
